THURSDAY CLUB AT SEASON'S FINAL MEETING
 The home of Mrs. Margaret Webb, 1003 Cota ave., was a setting for the recent enjoyable meeting of Thursday Neighborhood club. Honoring Mrs. Ethel Folts, club member, on the occasion of her birthday, and her mother, Mrs. John R. Gyan, a decorated cake was cut and lovely gifts were presented.
 The group reported receiving messages from Mrs. Margaret Stewart, one of the club members, on vacation at Wheeling, West Virginia.
 The meeting at Mrs. Webb's home marked the last gathering of the group until fall.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS' OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED IN COLORFUL MASONIC TEMPLE CEREMONY
 Beautiful and impressive were the rites which marked the 40th semi-annual installation of officers of Torrance Bethel No. 50, Order of Job's Daughters, held recently in Masonic Temple.
 Miss Wanda Lee Moore, retiring honored queen, beautifully attired in a white embroidered summer formal and carrying an orchid on a Bible, as installing officer inducted Wilma Jean McBride, honored queen; Dorothy Warning and Marlene Quaggin, princesses; Joann Sandstrom, guide and Joy Oursler, marshal.
 Other installing officers were: Naomi Edwards, guide; Doris Lee Quaggin, marshal; Pat Miles, senior custodian; Barbara Moyer, junior custodian, all past honored queens; Mary Ellen Crawford, chaplain; Nancy Ann Whyte, musician and Mariou Rose, recorder.
 Master of Ceremonies was Wm. H. Brenner, past master, Torrance Lodge No. 447 and past associate guardian Torrance Bethel No. 50, Order of Job's Daughters. An impressive invocation service was rendered by Rev. Paul M. Wheeler.
 Mrs. Jeanette Clark, worthy matron, Torrance Chapter No. 380, Order of Eastern Star, read the ceremony beautifully and impressively as the Bethel choir, followed by the new officers, made their entrance. Mary Ellen Crawford and Doris Lee Quaggin formed the escort of the Holy Bible and the Flag. Steven Northington served as jewel bearer. Ushers were Bill Tolson and Eddie Findley, members of the Order of DeMolay.
 Miss Nancy Ann Whyte, talented young pianist, played as her solo "Etude de Concert" by Liszt, which was a very enjoyable interlude in the ceremonies of the evening. Miss Whyte's performance was truly that of a fine artist.
 Guest soloist of the evening was Miss Nelle Hocott, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte, during the entrance of the honored queen-elect, Miss Hocott's rendition of this number added much to the impressiveness of the ceremony.

 Appointive officers who will serve during the ensuing term are: Cecilia Bidwell, chaplain; Beverly Luster, treasurer; Mary Tibbetts, recorder; Pat Clere, musician; Margaret Thomas, librarian; Mary Schulz, senior custodian; Pat Northway, junior custodian; Hazel Davis, outer guard; Donna Mauk, inner guard; Donna Baer, Marylou Hovlid, Barbara Raymond, Joyce Riggio and Evelyn Clark, messengers.
 Celestial choir members installed were: Dolores Ullbright, Marilyn Baer, Ann Marie Bishop, Shirley Jane Fischer, Joyce Ann Bever, Nancy Jane Cunningham, Helen Jane McBride, Donna Pat Wolf, Nancy Lee Allen, Jo Ann King, Marilyn Finch, Georgelyn Thatcher, Marian McDonald, Claudette Buckley, Lois Davis, Emily Anna Burchfield and Jean Elhorna Tatlow.
 Other notable persons in the large audience were: Mr. Frederick Cook, worshipful master, Torrance Lodge No. 447, Mr. Homer Morgan, past master, Torrance Lodge No. 447 and Dad of the Torrance Chapter, Order of DeMolay.
 Newly installed officers carried yellow gardenias on white satin-bound books. Members of the Bethel choir wore bouquets of flowers. A large basket of flowers in the east was a gift from the Torrance Chapter, Order of DeMolay.
 Two large baskets of gladioli in the west were the gift of Margaret Clark, guardian treasurer of Torrance Bethel No. 50, Order of Job's Daughters.
 Delicious refreshments were later served in the banquet room by Mrs. E. A. McBride, mother of the honored queen.

To-Lo-Ha Members Are Honored At Evening Party
 Members of To-Lo-Ha club were delightfully entertained Friday evening at the Harbor City home of Mrs. Merle Osborne.
 The regular business session was followed by a social evening when members honored those who had celebrated birthdays during the past three months.
 Recipients of many beautiful handkerchiefs presented by the members were the following honor guests: Mmes. Katherine Flynn, Inis Ambill, Sara Jenkins and Leolla Elder. Mrs. Osborne's gift to the honorees were pastel ceramic jewel boxes which she had made for them.
 Luncheon was the evening diversion with the following ladies as prize winners: Mmes. Anna Huggins, Leota Norris and Margaret Pullman.
 Assisting Mrs. Osborne with party arrangements was her mother, Mrs. C. Chard, a club guest.

DAV Officers Are Installed At Evening Meeting
 Installation of Raoul Pippett as commander and Mrs. Pippett as auxiliary president, marked the last meeting of Tri-Cities Chapter No. 65 Disabled American Veterans.
 A delightful program presented by Three Arts Studio furnished entertainment for members and their guests.
 To be initiated into the local chapter at the next meeting is Albert J. Cox, a veteran who suffered a 100 percent disability during combat in World War II and who is now undergoing treatment at U. S. Navy hospital, Long Beach. * * *
